FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

LEILANE GONZALEZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

FRANKLIN COLLECTION SERVICE, INC.,

Defendant.

CIVIL COMPLAINT

CASE NO. 1:21-cv-02278

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff LEILANE GONZALEZ (“Plaintiff”), by and through her attorneys, Consumer Law Partners, LLC, complaining as to the conduct of FRANKLIN COLLECTION SERVICE, INC. (“Defendant”), as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action for damages pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”) under 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. for Defendant’s unlawful conduct.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This action arises under and is brought pursuant to the FDCPA. Subject matter jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 15 U.S.C § 1692, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337, as the action arises under the laws of the United States.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 as Defendant transacts business within the Northern District of Illinois and the events and/or omissions giving rise to the claims made in this Complaint occurred within the Northern District of Illinois.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff is a consumer over 18-years-of-age residing in Kane County, Illinois, which is located within the Northern District of Illinois.

5. Defendant is a third-party debt collector organized under the laws of the state of Mississippi, with its registered agent located at 208 South LaSalle Street, Suite 814, Chicago, Illinois, 60604. Defendant regularly collects upon consumers residing within the state of Illinois.

6. Defendant acted through its agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives and insurers at all times relevant to the instant action.

FACTS SUPPORTING CAUSES OF ACTION

7. The instant action arises out of Defendant's attempts to collect upon an outstanding telecommunications debt ("subject debt") that Plaintiff allegedly incurred.

8. Upon information and belief, after Plaintiff's purported default, the subject debt was subsequently turned over to Defendant for collection purposes.

9. In early 2021, Plaintiff began receiving calls to her cellular phone, (630) XXX-9258, from Defendant.

10. At all times relevant to the instant action, Plaintiff was the sole subscriber, owner, and operator of the cellular telephone ending in -9258. Plaintiff is and always has been financially responsible for the telephone and its services.

11. Defendant has used a variety of phone numbers when placing calls to Plaintiff's cellular phone, including but not limited to (877) 354-9845 and (855) 328-0808.

12. Upon information and belief, the aforementioned phone numbers are regularly utilized by Defendant during its debt collection activities.

13. Upon speaking with Defendant, Plaintiff was informed that Defendant was attempting to collect upon the subject debt.

14. Plaintiff informed Defendant's representatives that she could not make payment toward the subject debt, and demanded that Defendant stop calling her.

15. One of these conversations occurred on or about March 12, 2021.

16. In spite of this information, Defendant continued to place calls to Plaintiff's cellular phone, prompting Plaintiff to reiterate her demands that Defendant stop calling.

17. Defendant's representative even acknowledged that Defendant was aware of her requests, but still, Defendant persisted with its collection efforts.

18. Defendant's representative also engaged in rude and aggressive conduct during this call, causing Plaintiff to feel threatened.

19. Plaintiff's multiple efforts to quell Defendant's contacts have been ineffective, and seeing no end to Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff was forced to hire counsel and her damages therefore include reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in prosecuting this action.

20. As a result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages, punitive damages and all other appropriate measures to punish and deter Defendant and other collectors from engaging in the unlawful collection practices described in this Complaint, supra.

21. Plaintiff has been unfairly treated and harassed by Defendant's actions.

22. Plaintiff has suffered concrete harm as a result of Defendant's actions, including but not limited to, stress, invasion of privacy, aggravation that accompanies collection telephone calls, emotional distress, increased usage of her telephone services, loss of cellular phone capacity, diminished cellular phone functionality, decreased battery life on her cellular phone, and diminished space for data storage on her cellular phone.

COUNT I – VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

23. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 22 as though fully set forth herein.
24. Plaintiff is a “consumer” as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(3) of the FDCPA.
25. Defendant is a “debt collector” as defined by §1692a(6) of the FDCPA, because it regularly use the mail and/or the telephone to collect, or attempt to collect, delinquent consumer accounts.
26. Defendant identifies itself as a debt collector, and is engaged in the business of collecting or attempting to collect, directly or indirectly, defaulted debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to others. Defendant has also been a member of the Association of Credit and Collection Professionals (“ACA”) since 1982.¹
27. The subject debt is a “debt” as defined by FDCPA §1692a(5) as it arises out of a transaction due or asserted to be owed or due to another for personal, family, or household purposes.

a. Violations of the FDCPA, §1692c(a)(1) and d

28. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692d, prohibits a debt collector from engaging “in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.” §1692d(5) further prohibits, “causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number.”
29. Defendant violated §1692c(a)(1), d, and d(5) when it continuously called Plaintiff after being notified to stop calling. Defendant even acknowledged Plaintiff’s requests, but continued to place repeated phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone regardless, with the hopes that the sustained pressure would cause Plaintiff to succumb to Defendant’s efforts and remit payment. This repeated behavior of systematically and knowingly calling Plaintiff’s cellular phone, in spite of her demands, was harassing and abusive. The frequency and volume of calls shows that Defendant willfully ignored Plaintiff's pleas with the goal of annoying and harassing her.

30. Defendant was notified by Plaintiff that its calls were not welcomed and that she was feeling harassed. Defendant's representative even acknowledged that Plaintiff had previously requested that the calls cease. As such, Defendant knew that its conduct was inconvenient and harassing to Plaintiff.

b. Violations of FDCPA, § 1692e

31. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692e, prohibits a debt collector from using "any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt."

32. In addition, this section enumerates specific violations, such as:

"The use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer." 15 U.S.C. §1692e(10).

33. Defendant violated §1692e and e(10) when it used false and deceptive means to collect and/or attempt to collect the subject debt. Even though Plaintiff notified Defendant to stop calling on multiple occasions, Defendant blatantly ignored Plaintiff's wishes and deceptively continued to place systematic calls to her cellular phone.

c. Violations of FDCPA, § 1692f

34. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692f, prohibits a debt collector from using "unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt."

35. Defendant violated §1692f when it unfairly and unconscionably attempted to collect on the subject debt by continuously calling Plaintiff numerous times after being told to stop calling. Attempting to coerce Plaintiff into payment by placing voluminous phone calls after receiving this information is unfair and unconscionable behavior. These means employed by Defendant only served to worry and confuse Plaintiff.

36. As pled in paragraphs 18 through 22, supra, Plaintiff has been harmed and suffered damages as a result of Defendant's illegal actions.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, LEILANE GONZALEZ, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in her favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned bodies of law;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff statutory damages of $1,000.00 as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(2)(A);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(1);
- d. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(3);
- e. Enjoining Defendant from further contacting Plaintiff; and
- f. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

DATED this 28th day of April, 2021.
